CLOSING DATE DECIDED ON

CHARLESTON MEETING WILL COME TO END ON SATURDAY, JANUARY 2.

Curtailment of Meeting to Twenty-Eight Days Will Permit Horsemen to Go On to Havana in Good Season for Opening of Oriental Park.

Season for Opening of Oriental Park.

Charleston, S. C., December 20.—The Palmetto Park meeting will come to a close on Saturday, January 2, instead of continuing for the full thirty days for which it was originally scheduled. This will make the duration of the meeting twenty-eight days. By closing on January 2, horsemen will be given abundant opportunity to reach Havana for the opening of the sixty-eight days' meeting there on January 7. Many of those who are planning January 1, will have moved on to the Crescat City before the local neeting comes to an end.

Since the meeting is to close so soon after the beginning of the 'new year, it has been decided not to attempt to card any races for the two-year-oids of 1915. There are about fifty yearlings at the track that are being shaped up for early racing, but they will all make their debut elsewhere.

It is doubtful if a meeting has been recently held at which the fields have been so uniformly large as has been the case here. The horsemen all appear anxious to keep their charges busy and as a result the competition has been keen throughout. The future of Palmetto Park is problematical. There are some who incline to the belief that this meeting will mark the passing of Charleston as a racing point. There are no grounds for this view. however. Local interest in the racing has been growing steadily and but for the financial depression from which the south is suffering as a result of the unfortunate conditions in the cotton market, the local patronage undoubtedly would be much greater. The coolus of turfmen from here will begin the latter part of this week, when the advance guard will depart for New Orleans and Havana.

W. Lilley, an apprendice, who has been showing promising form in the saddle here, is a stepson of J. L. Paul, who is racing a string of horses leased from F. J. Pons.

The Christmas week of racing at Palmetto Park will be ushered in tomorrow with the running of a well balanced card. The conditions of the races provided for the week will give every own

PLEA TO SPARE THE MARES.

Christopher J. Fitzgerald, formerly presiding indge at the New York race fracks, writes the New York Sun from London, Ont., where he is at present located, as follows: "If the war continues six months longer the horse breeding industry in the United States and Canada will have received a serback that it will take years to overcome. Already many thousands of mares of a class sadly needed at home have gone abroad. Up to the present mares and geldings have been taken without regard to the future of our horse product, and there is talk here in Canada of a movement to confine the purchase of cavalry 'remount' and gun' horses to geldings only. This section of Ontario, already famous for the quality of its half-bred horses, has furnished thousands of the most desirable animals for use in the present war. Major-General Hughes stated publicity at a luncheon here on Wednesday last that the horses bought by Sir Adam Beek in London and contiguous territory were by far the best that had gone abroad. For many years superior thoroughbred horses that had won distinction in the race courses in different parts of the United States and England were brought to Canada and crossed with standard bred trotting mares and other matrons of a desirable type. Their progeny gave this country a supereminent position in the horse breeding world.

"The Canadian half-bred, thoroughbred sire mated with the heavier type of mare gives added bone and the bulk requisite for the handling of weight in soft or marshy ground. Time was when stallons of a few hundred dollars each at any race course, but the hindrances from which racing has suffered and the consequent curtailment of the breeding interesis have sadly thinned the ranks of those who for many years regarded their occupation as most honorably. As a consequence, there is a decided shortage of the type of horse Youtat describes as the best for this special purpose, the short coupled, well ribbed, stout both and individual, with a good temper to back his other qualifications, would be a treasure i special purpose, the short coupled, well ribbed, stant bodied stallion with the sloping shoulders and oblique pasterns.

"Such an individual, with a good temper to back his other qualifications, would be a treasure in any community where thinking people having the welfare of their country at heart indulge in that most engaging feature of rural life—the raising of good horses. The French and German governments have for many years vied with each other in the excellence of their army horses, and the manner in which the artillery of the former country has been handled since the commencement of hostilities has excited the admiration of the world.

"A gentleman who has just returned from a tricthrough Kentucky, Tennessee and other southern states, where he bought more than 2.200 horses for the British government, says there were many fine mares among them. He was only one buyer of many representing the imperial government, and it is safe to conclude that in every portion of the United States there was no discrimination in favor of mares. Washington, Oregon and Montana have furnished their quota, as have lowa, Missouri, Kansas and Illinois.

Should war come to the United States, and in these troublous times there is always a chance of it, where would the authorities turn for an adequate supply of horses for military purposes? The breeding bureau of the Jockey Club has done something in New York State, and some gentlemen prominent in racing, August Belmont, head of the Jockey Club, particularly, have given thoroughbred stallions to the government studs, but the supply of desirable remount and artillery horses is very limited.

of desirable remount and artinery norses is very limited.

"If will become more so in both the United States and Canada unless the sale for army purposes of all mares under a certain age, say seven years, is probibited."

GOOD SHOWING OF A PROMINENT KENTUCKY STABLE

Thomas C. McDowell was favored with a comfortable turf year in 1914, bis stable winning a total of $22,840, which was quite an advance over his $14,240 of last year. His good and fleet mare, Star Jasmine, was in the best form of her career in racing and was his principal winner. His two-year-olds, liberator, bark Flower and Waterblossom, won so well and raced so fast as to assure the continued strength of his stable next year, Liberator's victory in the Beechmont Stakes at Douglas Park, September 26, being quite a meritorious performance, Star Jasmine's principal contribution was made when she won the Merchants' Seiling Stakes at Latonia, June 20, and ran its distance of one mile in 1:38½ with ease. His two-year-old coit, Manager Waite, was supposed to be a real star, but went amiss in the spring after winning two of the three races in which he was started, defeating Chalmers in his first race. The earnings of the McDowell horses were:

HORSES THAT WON IN THE COLORS OF J. L. HOLLAND

In the racing of 1913 J. L. Holland was highly successful and, with a total of $42,445 in stable carnings, stood second to H. P. Whitney in the list of winning owners of the year, his fine old campaigner, Denald Macdonald, accounting for $16,080 as the outcome of twenty-two races won. This year he started off so well that it seemed he might at least equal his good record of the year before, but early in the rac ning season he concluded to sell all of his horses in training and retire from the sport for a time, business requirements of weight being the impelling cause. It follows that his stable record terminates with the sale of his horses early in June: In such racing as he did he introduced a two-year-old colt of his own breeding named Hauberk, which won the Juvenile Stakes at Belmont Park, and at the same track raced the splendid filly. Comely, to a head in the Keene Memorial Stakes while carrying 116 pounds to her 100 and obviously was a good one. He brought a big price at the Holland sale, but only raced once in his new owner's name and must have been injured in some way. The earnings of the Holland horses were:

J. B. RESPESS' BIG STRING OF PLATERS

"Rome" Respess did not have another Dick Welles in the list of twenty horses which raced for him this year, but several sons and daughters of that marvellously speedy horse raced usefully in his colors. The ancient representative of Barney Schreiber's breeding. Vree'and, proved to be his best money winner, and for a horse of his age raced extremely well. The Cesarion mare. Jenny Geddes, one of the few Cesarions that could stay over a good route as well as sprint, came second to Vreeland and was followed in carnings by the speedy, but somewhat erratic, Dick Welles filly. Miss Declare. Cannonade headed the Respess two-year-o ds and was the only one which won as much as $1,000. A number of the horses which raced for him were at one time and another passed along into other ownerships and his stable record for the year was: the year was:

PLATERS THAT RACED IN SAMUEL ROSS' COLORS

Samuel Ross, of Washington, a good sportsman, raced more horses this year than has been his usual custom and, trath to tell, he was far distant from having a Colin or a Roamer in his total of sixteen starters. However, in the fact that his two best winners were two-year-olds is a tinge of hope for better things to come, on the ground that such young horses are vested with all the possibilities of improvement as they grow older. Even though his stable earnings were hardly up to what might have been expected from the number of well-bred young horses he campaigned, yet they represent a substantial increase over the $6.615 won by his stable in 1913. Moreover, his colors were in front in twenty-six races, as compared with twelve that year. It thus comes about that, while none of the big prizes of the turf fell to him, it is quite probable that he does not view his stable's record for the year with disfavor, it being as follows:

CLEAR SKIES AT JUAREZ

RAIN CEASES AND SUNDAY FINDS BIG CROWD AT MEXICAN TRACK.

Ringling, Well Served by Sloppy Going, Wins Overnight Handicap That Has Place of Honor on Program-Hackett Stable Takes a Purse,

El Paso, Tex., December 20.—Today's racing at Juarez took place under a clear sky, but the track was sloppy as a result of the rain that had been falling for nearly twenty-four hours. Horses at comparatively short odds accounted for most of the races.

F. D. Weir's Ringling, especially well served by the muddy going, was returned an easy winner in the mile handicap for all ages that served as the chief racing event of the day. Outrun in the early part of the race, she ran past the leaders on the last turn and went on to win by herself. That she would give a good account of herself was foreshadowed in the betting. Brynlimah, running coupled with Fathom as the F. S. Hackett entry, finished second and Hoenir, the top weight of the race, was third.

Palma was never headed in the opening dash and scored by a liberal margin over -Blacksheep. Nobleman, from the Yanke stable, was backed into favoritism in the second and won with ease, Yallaha, the early pacemaker, barely lasted to beat Carrie Orme for second money.

The first success of the formidable Hackett stable since its arrival from Maryland was scored when Mater won the third race. She was going always in front and her winning margin was four lengths. She was a receding favorite.

The consistent Orimar Lad accounted for the fifth. He, too, led all the way by a goodly margin. Mercurium, which had displaced him in favoritism, was unplaced. Rose Oneil, in accounting for the closing dash, paid the longest odds of any winner of the day, being an outsider in the betting. Sleepland was the runner-up and Lady Innocence, the favorite, came from far back to be third.

The weather was ideal today and a big crowd journeyed to the track.

Mater was kicked on the inside of her forcleg while at the post and had an artery cut. She bled profusely after being returned the winner.

As A. A. Gregg arrived with Little Birdie, Jewel of Asia and Single Toc.

KING GEORGE'S MOST SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Probably one of the most strenuous flat-racing seasons on record, particularly during the last three months, was that which reached its end on Saturiday. It was remarkable for many incidents, some not altogether satisfactory, as, for instance, the quality of the classic three-year-olds, which must, I think, be admitted to be well below the usual standard, while there was nothing outstanding in the juvenile form. There is, however, at least one gratifying reflection in the fact that his Majesty's horses won the largest aggregate in stakes since his accession to the throne. This happy result is due in the main to Friar Marcus, which is responsible for $50,750 of the total of $50,720 satting for $50,750 of the total of $50,720 satting for $10,700 purple and scarlet. These figures must be particularly gratifying to Lord Marcus Beresford and Riebard Marsh, not to mention Walker, the studies of bringing up the young stock until sent up as yearlings to Egerton House. Nor is Jones to be forgotten, for be had the handling of Friar Marcus in all his races, and enjoys the distinction of having been first jockey to the Royal stable ever since he won the Two Thousand Guineas, Derby, and St. Leger on Diamond Jubilee for the late King Edward, then Prince of Wales.

EUROPEAN WAR DEVELOPMENTS.

Western Galicia was declared to be clear of Russians in an official statement issued at Vienna. In the battle of Limanowa the Austro-Hungarian army is declared to have completely routed the Russians and to have taken 26,000 prisoners and great quantities of war material, while the Russian losses were encormons. The total number of Russians captured in Galicia in the last few days is reported to be 33,000. The following official communication was issued earlier: "Our forces which advanced beyond the line from Krosno to Zakliczyn again met with stubborn resistance yesterday. Violent fighting is also proceeding on the lower Dunajecriver in Galicla. The Russian rear guards, who had made a dogged stand on the western bank of the river were almost completely routed. In South Poland fighting continued, the enemy being routed. Our cavalry, which on Tursday evening entered Jendzejow, has reached the river Nida. Further north the Austro-German allies have crossed the river Pilica. From the Carpathians there is no news except of minor engagements with results favorable to our troops. From Przenysł our troops made a sortie without meeting serious resistance and captured several hundred prisoners."

German claims of victory over the Russian armies stand edicially denied at Petrograd, while the tri-sorthe without meeting serious resistance and captured several hundred prisoners."

German claims of victory over the Russian armies stand officially denied at Petrograd, while the triumph of the forces of the car which opposed the advance of the Germans in northern Poland is declared to be rapilly growing in importance. The Germans are said to be in full retreat on the East Prussian frontier from Ciechanof, which is twenty miles southeast of Mlawa, on the main railroad to Warsaw, along the line on which the Germans attempted to advance. Desperate rear guard actions are said to be in progress as the Russians press closely on the retreating army. Many prisoners are being taken by the Russians as the Germans, exhausted and suffering from exposure in the severe weather which has prevailed, drop to the rear and voluntarily surrender.

Between Nieuport and Middelkerke the German positions were heavily shelled by the British warships between Friday midnight and 7 o'clock Saturday morning. During the earlier stage of the action the German fire was heavy, but apparently the guns were destroyed or withdrawn, as the reply early in the morning was light.

Word comes from Rosen, the headquarters of the German army in the east, that Field Marshel.

Word comes from Rosen, the headquarters of the Germany army in the east, that Field Marshal von Hindenburg's army took Lowiez Friday after heavy fighting for several days and compelled the further retirement of the Russian lines.

Sir Horace Plunkett, head of the Irish agricul-tural board, has arrived at New York, and asserts that Earl Kitchener has now a British army of 2,000,000 men well trained and almost ready to be sent to the front.

Kaiser Wilhelm is said to be planning to return to the headquarters of his army on the western front this week. His condition is greatly improved and he expects to leave Berlin within a few days. The conference of the three Scandinavian kings resulted in an agreement to remain nentral and stand together on troublous questions arising out of

The allies are reported to be making steady gains a Belgium and northern France in the face of vigrous German opposition.
